WHAT CAME OF A FLIRTATION

By E. BARTLET THORPE

Copyright, 1910, by American Press Association.

Jack Meadenhall and myself were midshipmen together in the navy. One day while our ship was lying at anchor in Japanese waters Jack and I got permission to go ashore together.

We sauntered along one of the streets till we came to the outskirts, where the houses were farther apart and their surroundings more ample.
Passing a garden inclosed by a low wall, we saw a couple of pretty Japanese girls picking flowers. Jack took out his handkerchief—the method in those days of flirting; I don't know how they do it now—and waved it.
We were not more than a dozen yards from the girls, one of whom, seeing a couple of European youngsters in uniform, tossed a rose over the wall. It fell at Jack's feet. He picked it up, inhaled its odor, kissed it and put it in the buttonhole of his jacket.

Both girls laughed, and the other girl threw another rose, which I picked up, inhaled, kissed and put in my own buttonhole. Then, like good boys, we walked on. We didn't care to appear too presuming, and we didn't wish to frighten the little birds by rushing matters. But we didn't walk very far. We soon turned and went back toward the place where we had seen the girls. We argued that if they wished for our further acquaintance they would remain where they were, expecting our return.

We found them in exactly the same place, but as we drew near they turned their backs upon us. Jack gave a loud "Ahem!" One of the girls turned and smiled. I gave another "Ahem!" and the other girl turned also. This was enough for Jack, who needed only a moiety of encouragement, and he vaulted the wall. I followed him.
It was making an acquaintance under difficulties, we not speaking the Japanese language and they not knowing a word of English. Jack, whose boldness naturally gave him the initiative, pointed to the flowers growing about us and by a well enacted pantomime indicated that we would like some of them. The girls understood, plucked a lot for each of us, then by pantomime asked us to inspect the grounds.

Of course we got separated, Jack going with her who had thrown him the rose, I with her companion, who had favored me. Why they took the liberty of receiving us so unceremoniously I didn't know. They were surely of the samurai class and must have been of wealthy and respectable parents, for the place in which they lived was a large one and their kimonos were made of the finest texture. I was inclined to think that papa and mamma were not at home. At any rate, we spent a couple of hours with them, chatting all the while in the unspoken language of love which young people don't need to study. Before parting with them we exhibited sufficiently to leave them in no doubt that we would call again as soon as we could get another leave.

It was two days after this that we were ordered to report in the captain's cabin. We found there a couple of Japanese men of the higher class and a third who was an interpreter. The men looked as solemn as owls.
"Young gentlemen," said the captain, "since you were the only officers ashore on leave the day before yesterday I think that a message brought by these persons must be for you.
Besides, I recognize these gawags as belonging to you."

He held up a scarfpin that I had given one of the girls and a ring Jack had given the other. Jack and I were dumfounded. The captain motioned the interpreter to speak. He told us that each of us having given a present to a young girl—a gift in Japan being considered a proposition of marriage—their fathers had come aboard to see that two noble Japanese families would feel honored at an alliance with so great a nation as the United States by giving a daughter to each of the young officers who had asked for her hand.

The matter was far too serious to warrant any expression of amusement.
The captain saw at once that we had got into a flirtation and unwittingly proposed marriage. Not wishing to give offense, he took the matter into his own hands, much to the relief of us youngsters who had got into the scrape.

"Tell the gentlemen," he said to the interpreter, "that, representing the United States, I am highly honored that the propositions of my officers should be accepted, but that since the offer was made without permission I shall be obliged to lay the matter before the president. I sail for America tomorrow, will discover his excellency's wishes, if possible obtain his permission and act accordingly."

The interpreter translated the captain's speech, and the Japanese gentlemen signified acquiescence and after leaving their addresses, with all necessary information, departed.

"Gentlemen," said the captain when our would be fathers-in-law had gone, "you may consider yourselves under arrest. To suffer any of my officers to put a slight upon the Japanese people might cost me my commission."

We walked the next day, and on reaching American waters the captain wrote to Japan that, while the president felt highly honored that two noble Japanese families had accepted the proposition of two of his young naval officers, in the American navy marriage was discouraged and permission could not be granted.

BROWARD LEADS BY 49 VOTES

Complete Unofficial Returns From Every County in the State.

According to the Jacksonville Metropolis the complete unofficial returns from every county in Florida show the United States senatorial contest to be Broward having a plurality over Tal-laferro of 49 votes.

The total vote of the state for Senator on the 10th inst. was $6,843, divided among the three candidates as follows: Broward 21,965; Taliaferro 21,016, and L'Engle 4,862.

The last county to be heard from was Madison, the vote of which showed that Broward had a plurality of 26, thus giving him a lead in 28 counties, while Taliaferro has a lead in 18 counties.

Citrus county gave a plurality to L'Engle.

Both sides are hopeful of a victory in the second primary, which will be held on June 7th, and both forces are hard at work to bring out a big vote.

Senator Taliaferro began his second campaign in Duval county last night speaking at the foot of Main street.
Frank Clark the eloquent Congressman has espoused the cause of the Senator and spoke with him at this meeting.
In his announcement to the voters published in the Times-Union Senator Taliaferro says that "false reports and columnies were circulated about me by my opponents while I was in Washington at my post of duty in the interests of the state, and I had little chance to defend them. My purpose now is to undeceive the people." This is taken to mean that the Senator is going to do some real fighting of most any kind in the campaign now on.

Broward is in South Florida this week, and is making his campaign on the success of the Everglades project and free agricultural schools for every county in Florida. He is in Manatee county, which gave Taliaferro a big plurality last Tuesday week.

Taliaferro forces have the best organization, as Broward's headquarters have but few at work, but the latter is depending on friends in various counties.
There will be much work done on both sides and the general opinion is that the contest will be exciting and spectacular.

Rev. W. C. Foster Resigns.

Rev. W. C. Foster for the past year pastor of the Baptist church in this city has tendered his resignation, the same to take effect on August first. Mr.
Foster is an able preacher and gave general satisfaction to the church. He is a most genial gentleman and his popularity is not confined to the membership of his own church, but extends to all denominations. It is understood that his resignation is due to insufficient support.

Mr. Foster and family moved to Daytona Beach last Monday at which place he has secured a lease of the Hotel Van Valzah, which he will conduct. He will return to Palatka each Sunday and fill the pulpit of the Baptist church until August.

It is not thought that Mr. Foster desires to quit the work of the ministry permanently.

Assessor Bullard Appreciates.

To the voters of Putnam county: While I had no opposition to my didn't want any I am just as appreciative, and thank you for the vote gave me on 10th of May.
G. F. BULLARD.

From Mr. Middleton.

To the Democratic voters of Putnam Co: I wish to express my gratitude to you for your hearty support in the recent primary election and assure you of my appreciation of the splendid vote you gave me on May 10th.

I thank you for this manifestation of your confidence and I shall endeavor at all times to give my best efforts to the interests of our county and be true to my public trust. Very sincerely yours, W. S. MIDDLETON.

This Cemetery Needs Attention.

The neglected condition of Oak Hill cemetery, situated some three miles out on the Francis road, has become the subject of frequent comment of the kind not at all flattering to the trustees having it in charge. The cemetery is fenced, but not properly so, for the hogs roaming throughout the neighborhood get through and do considerable damage.

In connection with these complaints the News has received the following communication from a lot owner that should result in a change of policy on the part of the cemetery trustees:

Palatka May 18, 1910.

Editor PALATKA NEWS:
The "City of the Dead" should be the "City Beautiful," because it is "God's Own Acre." Yet one can scarcely find a more neglected looking spot than Oak Hill Cemetery. There is no water within a radius of half a mile so it is needless to plant shrubs and flowers; but worst of all, the hogs roam at large and on Sunday last the writer counted no less than six graves almost demolished beyond the semblance of a grave. Surely something can be done to stop this outrage, for unless it is stopped many graves will be destroyed beyond recognition and but few have stones to mark the last resting place of some loved one.

Chamberlain's Liniment.

This is a new preparation and a good one. It is especially valuable as a cure for chronic and muscular rheumatism, and for the relief from pain which it affords in acute inflammatory rheumatism. Those who have used it have invariably spoken of it in the highest terms of praise. Lame back, lame shoulder and stiff neck are due to rheumatism of the muscles, usually brought on by exposure to cold or damp, and are quickly cured by applying this liniment freely and massaging the affected parts. Soreness of the muscles, whether induced by violent exercise or injury, is allayed by this liniment.

Pythians Will Celebrate.

St. Johns Lodge K. of P. of this city is making preparations for a fitting celebration of the 25th anniversary of its organization, which falls on June 25th, but as that day falls on Saturday it is probable that the celebration will take place on Monday evening the 27th.

It is the purpose of the lodge to make this celebration memorable in the history of Pythianism in Palatka and to that end the committee in charge of the festival will secure the big hall of the Palatka Athletic Association and invite such prominent Pythians as Hon. W. H.
Ellis, Rev. Dr. W. W. DeHart, H. H.
Richardson and M. W. Stewart to be present to address the meeting, after the banquet.

The Pythians of Palatka have an established reputation for hospitality in all parts of the state, and their lodge is one of the largest and most active in the work of the order in Florida. It is composed of the real cream of Palatka's manhood, and every month shows a large increase to the membership.

The coming event will be looked forward to with great interest by all members of the order here and the citizens generally.

Some Big Auto Sales.

The Rambler Automobile Company of this city which Mr. A. T. Anderson is the manager, has been doing business during the past ten days. Among the sales reported are three big Rambler touring cars of 45 horse power and each fully equipped.

These sales were made to Hon. S. J.
Hilburn, Mr. H. S. Cummings of Reman, and Rev. W. C. Foster, who this week moved to Daytona Beach.

These are the largest and most elegantly equipped cars yet sold in this city and are capable of developing great speed.

The Rambler company through Mr.
Anderson has also sold to H. L. Sprink of Jacksonville, a 34 horse power touring car, known as Model 53 for $2,150.

The Rambler Company of this city has besides Mr. Anderson, a special demonstrator in the person of Mr. Clair Otey, who comes direct from the Rambler factory. Mr. Otey is an expert and though he has driven his cars over several thousand miles of Florida's sand roads and through the woods he has never had the slightest accident. It was the pleasant experience of the editor of the News to ride with him in a big Rambler touring car to Grandin one day recently. This distance of some 24 miles, much of the way over the worst possible roads, was made in one hour and forty minutes. People who have taken a long distance ride in a Rambler touring car will not soon forget the pleasures of such an experience.

Married at Peniel.

Miss Jessie E. Kellum, the attractive daughter of Mr. G. W. Kellum of Peniel, and Mr. Horace S. Wells of Stokes Landing, were married this week at the home of the bride's parents. The wedding was a quiet, home affair with only the relatives present.

The residence was beautifully decorated in green and white. The bride wore a dress of white organdie trimmed with lace. At the conclusion of the ceremony a wedding supper was given the refreshments being daintily served.
At the conclusion of the feast the bride and groom drove to their own new home in Peniel.

The bride has lived most of her life at Peniel and is a most charming young lady who has a host of warm friends.
The groom came here from Marion county, and holds an important position at the Wilson Cypress Co's camp at Stokes Landing.

The best wishes of a large circle of friends will follow this young couple, hoping for them a long and happy life.

"What is the meaning of this, sir?" Inquired an employer sternly. "Asleep at your desk before midday?"

"I—I'm extremely sorry, sir," answered the offending clerk, "but my baby has kept me awake all night."

"Indeed! Then you had better bring it will keep you awake during the day too?"—London Tatler.
